

Tamara Littame'

Tamara Littame' has over 9 years of experience in development aid including field operational experience in Kenya and South Sudan and 7 years of experience in mid-senior coordination roles, working with Comitato Collaborazione Medica (CCM) and organization with over 50 years of experience in the field of Public Health in East African Countries. She has been covering mainly managerial skills across a variety of sectors (food security, Women Empowerment, Health/Wash and Health/Sport for Development and Child Protection/Youth Empowerment) and since June 2020, she has been working as Consortium Coordinator of One Health initiative funded by the Italian Agency for Development Cooperation to foster the health and resilience of pastoral communities in Marsabit County in Kenya. The project is led by CCM organization in partnership with Vétérinaires Sans Frontières-Germany, Translate into meaning (TriM) and the Interuniversity Department of Regional and Urban Studies and Planning of Politecnico University in Turin, Italy.

