

Yahya Osman is a veterinarian working at the Jigjiga university of Ethiopia. Yahya played a major role to establish the One Health surveillance and response in the Somali regional State of Ethiopia. He holds Msc in epidemiology and is a PHD candidate in epidemiology at the University of Basel with a focus on the best ways to operationalize the One Health surveillance and response in the Somali region of Ethiopia.